Meet your show officials.

Kem Barbosa, USEF S Judge

Kem Barbosa is a USEF "S" Dressage Judge from Princeton, New Jersey. She is on the road a lot judging, including dates for the 2023 USDF Championships in Region 1 and 4 ,the BLM Regional Championships as well as shows at WEC and Wellington .Kem is also an equestrian author featured in various horse publications including The Chronicle and Dressage Today. She has a blog, "Reflections on the Dressage Culture", and is co founder of Salutestockties.com, an online store for unique equestrian apparel. She competes her new Oldenburg mare, Mimi at Third Level.

Barbara Ebner, USEF S Judge

I was always a horse lover as a child. The youngest of 7 I did whatever chores I could to earn money to ride. My mom made it possible to purchase my first horse at age 14.He cost $200.00 Frequently getting bucked off and getting my front teeth kicked out and in hospital it was time to unload him and purchase my 2nd horse a purebred arabian gelding. I was in heaven! I worked hard to keep him doing self board. Its all history from than on. I evented my arabian Lewisfield Mosby thru open training riding with Hector and Gail Carmona. I also rode with Bruce Davidson when possible and Bela Buttakay and Major Silagyi.I purchased and trained several different breeds as youngsters 3 of which to FEI. Most instrumental trainer in my life for 14 years was Anne Gibbons. I worked when possible with Heather Mason as well. I trained the trakehner Replay to PSG and Int 1 earning USDF championships as well as my Swedish horse Scenario which Anne imported for me as a 4 year old. I have been judging for 35 plus years and also served on the board for NJ horse Park as well as ESDCTA . I continue to do so and love my work!!

Marilyn Payne, USEF S Judge

Marilyn is an FEI 5* Eventing Judge and a USEF "S" Dressage Judge who has officiated at major eventing and dressage competitions in the U.S. and around the world. She has judged at both the 2008 Olympics in Hong Kong and 2016 Olympics in Rio. She makes time in her busy judging schedule to teach seminars for FEI Eventing Officials and USEF dressage judges.

Marilyn is currently an active competitor in eventing and dressage. She resides with her husband Dick at their Applewood Farm in Oldwick, New Jersey. Both their children, Doug and Holly, are prominent 5* Eventing competitors and trainers, and Doug represented the US on the Eventing Olympic team in Tokyo 2021.

Camille Kopcik, Technical Delegate

Camille Kopcik resides in Johnson City, N.Y. with her husband, and three Giant Schnauzers. She became involved in the horse community through her daughter's interest in 4-H and U.S. Pony Club. Camille enjoyed competing in several Equestrian sports including Dressage, Hunter Paces, Point to Points, Polo and Fox Hunting. She currently holds USEF "R" level Dressage Technical Delegate's License, , and FEI Level 3 Stewards License. In addition to officiating and attending equestrian competitions, she is employed by Knoll's End Animal Hospital, which treats large and small animals. Camille also enjoys competing her Giant Schnauzer in obedience, agility and IPO trials. Her dogs have also worked in advertising for still photography and commercial, and film work. When not at animal related events, Camille and her husband can be found skyward piloting their single engine Piper Comanche.

Mary Alice Goss, Announcer

Mary Alice Goss is a highly experienced and passionate individual who has dedicated her entire life to the equestrian field. Hailing from the beautiful state of New Jersey, she has become a prominent figure in the industry as an accomplished announcer. She started out as that "horsey girl" in a non-horsey but very supportive family. At the age of ten she started riding lessons, got her first pony at eleven and soon became an avid Pony Clubber and 4H member competing in dressage, horse trials, equitation, hunter/jumper, and carriage driving shows. She was the founder of a successful, award winning therapeutic riding program as well as a coach for the US Disabled Equestrian Team three times in Dressage and Combined Driving at international events in Europe. As Director of Rules Compliance for the American Horse Shows Association, now known as USEF, she learned the details of equestrian competition from the side of management and administration. As Mary Alice's career progressed, she transitioned into the role of horse show announcer, bringing her wealth of knowledge and experience to the forefront. As an announcer, she has become a trusted voice in the equestrian community, providing insightful commentary and expert analysis during competitions and events.

Ellen Brindle-Clark, Manager

Ellen is a life-long equestrian, starting out in Florida where she followed her older cousin to and around the barn. As her family moved from country to country with the aerospace industry, her one constant and universal "language" was horses. Ellen studied dressage and jumping in England; Eventing in Holland and Germany; and dressage, jumping, and even a little western riding in the US. These experiences have led to a strong foundational knowledge of riding, horsemanship, and the equestrian industry. Having settled in New Jersey more than 20 years ago, Ellen's primary focus has become dressage. She runs Dressage Experience Show Management Services, LLC. She manages more than 40 shows a year, ranging from schooling shows to Level 5 USEF/USDF licensed shows, and CDI's. Ellen also contracts with HITS on the Hudson and Region 8 GAIG Regional Championships.

Stephanie Warner, Secretary

Stephanie resides in Hamilton NJ with her husband, Tom, and two children, Brianna and Andrew. Stephanie had a love of horses early on and rode western throughout her childhood. Later when Stephanie introduced Brianna to horses, Brianna's preference was Dressage. A truly invested parent, Stephanie took every opportunity to learn about dressage which lead her to volunteering at horse shows and eventually joining the Dressage Experience Show Management Team.

Stephanie is a Level 3 Show Secretary and Manager, travelling up and down the eastern seaboard running shows each year. Stephanie enjoys seeing riders succeed at the competitions she helps with.

Stephanie is now riding and learning para-equestrian dressage and looks forward to learning more about this discipline.

A huge thank you to all of our show volunteers!
